

James “JT” Thomas

Samson, Alabama

OBJECTIVE

Seeking position as a Game changer to reinforce my standing as a charming Sole Survivor who played the perfect game and redeem myself from an absurd second showing.

SURVIVOR EXPERIENCE

Sole Survivor

February 2009 – May 2009

Survivor: Tocantins

Brazilian Highlands

- Played the “perfect” Survivor game; no votes cast against throughout the season; received all seven jury votes in FTC.
- Accidentally happened upon an immunity idol, essentially bonding Stephen and me into a life-long brotherhood and unlikely - and incredibly successful - alliance for the entirety of the season. And that’s called Game Changing the bromance.
- Successfully seduced Brandon into swearing love and fealty to me after a river rafting reward.
- Lost a tooth, never cared.
- Challenge Threat: won 3 individual immunities (in the clutch), 1 individual reward, 3 group rewards (post-merge), 2 tribal immunities, and 4 tribal rewards.
- Member of The Warrior Alliance.

11th Boot

February 2010 – May 2010

Survivor: Heroes vs. Villains

Upolu, Samoa

- Declared a "Hero."
- Challenge Threat: Won 4 tribal immunities, and 4 tribal reward challenges.
- Noticed a systemic Pagonging of the men on the Villains tribe; took proactive steps to stop the second coming of the Black Widow Brigade.
- Gave Russel Hantz, a contestant assigned to the "Villains" tribe whom I had never seen play before, my hidden immunity idol. Sneaky-like, with a bro-hug.
- Merge Boot: Voted off due to aforementioned idol 3 days later.
